Higher Education Work Experience

Associate Professor 8/2005 - present

Associate Professor. Kent State University, Kent, Ohio. School of Speech Pathology and Audiology. Graduate faculty status. Teaching responsibilities: clinical supervision, differential diagnosis, pediatric amplification, aural rehabilitation, auditory evoked potentials, telepractice, and research design. August 2005-present. Graduate faculty status.

Kent State University

Asst. Professor 8/2001 - 5/2005

Utah State University, Logan, Utah. Department of Communicative Disorders and Deaf Education. Graduate faculty status. Teaching responsibilities: Instructor in pediatric audiology, evoked potentials, amplification, aural rehabilitation, telepractice, and research design. August 2001-2005.

Utah State University

Associate Professor 8/1991 - 8/2001

Assoc. Professor. Minot State University, Minot, North Dakota, Department of Communication Disorders. Graduate faculty status. Teaching responsibilities: Instructor in pediatric audiology, otoacoustic emissions, cochlear implants, tinnitus, aural rehabilitation, research and computer skills, speech and hearing science, and supervision of audiology students in clinic.1991-2001.
